STRIKERS SURROUND TRAINS.

Will Not Allow Men From St. Louis to Land at Granite City. As each train from St. Louis draws into the station at Granite City it is surrounded by a crowd of the striking molders, helpers and those who have come to the city to take their places are not allowed to leave the cars, but forced to remain on the train and return to St. Louis.

When the 6 o'clock train reached the station yesteriday evening a crowa numbering about 550 strikers and sympathizers were waiting. About twenty men were on the train and expecting to go to work, but were forced to remain on the cars and return to St. Louis. The molders' helpers have been out at the works of the American Steel and Foundry Company for about two weeks.

The men are confident of success and say since they have been out but a few helpers has been reported. As a rule when the strikers inform those locking for work of the strike, they are willing to return to St. Louis. Since the strike the men have formed a union. and those who have come to the city to take

The Jacoby family was founded by Henry and Casper Jacoby, brothers, who came to the United States from Germany in 1853 and settled near Brighton. Both men are dead. The members of the family, however, number 181, of whom ninety-six are living. Nearly all the deceased members of the family are buried in the Brighton Cerneters, and this fact was partially responsible for the establishment of the annual reunion. Each Decoration Day the living gather and decorate the graves of the departed cnes, and following this a special literary and music programme is given. Following the dinner yesterday a special literary and music programme is given. Following the larger part of the German Church The Hrighton consists of members of the family, and the congregation prepared the dinner, which was spread on the church lawn, presided at the reunion. Two Sr. Locals pastors, the Reverend H. C. Jacoby, pastor of the German Methodist Church. In Grand avenue, and the Reverend T. W. Jacoby, who for ten years was the Presiding Edeer of the St. Louis German Methodist District, were descendants of the Jacoby, and family, were present at the reunion yesterday, as were also Deceter C. Jeseph and Henry Pfaff, grandchildren, from St. Louis.

Members from Jerseyville, Bunker Hill, Alton, Rockbridge, Jacksonville and other surrounding towns were present.

Appropriate Ceremonial at Oak Grove

Cemetery.
Decoration Day was observed at Jerseyville yesterday with special exercises under the auspices of Lowe Post, No. 28, Grand Army of the Republic. The programme was prepared under the direction of the post commander. Captain J. H. Duffield, assisted by the Reverend Stephen Catt, R. C. Gledhill and John Hargraves.

The procession was formed at the Courthouse square at 2 o'clock, and headed by the guard and flag and the Jerseyville City Hand, took up the line of march to Oak Grove Cemetery. Following came the members of Lowe Post and visiting meanbers of Lowe Post and visiting meanbers of the Grand Army, then the Woman's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans, citizens and children of the Jerseyville public schools. At the cemetery the ritual and service were held at the Soidlers Monument. Selections were played by the band, and the Twentieth Century Ladles' Quartette sang. The principal address of the day was delivered by Edward Miner of Carrollton, Ill. Readings were given by Misses Crone and Fanny Catt, the benediction being pronounced by the post's chapiain, the Reverend Mr. Catt.

MONUMENT TO LOST SOLDIERS. Impressive Exercises Mark the Dedi-

Impressive memorial services were held resterday at Plasa, the occasion being the diers. The exercises were under the auspi-dedication of a monument to the lost soldiers. The exercises were under the auspices of N. B. Bluford Post, No. 26, Grand Army of the Republic, at Plasa, which erected the monument.

The dedicatory oration was delivered by the Reverend T. Harley Marsh, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Jacksonville, Ill. In addition to the oration several veterans made addresses and a special music programme was given by the choirs of the Baptist and M. E. churches.

The monument, which was designed by W. H. Houghtlin of Jerseyville, sjands 12 feet high. The base is in four parts, supporting the marble shaft, which is surmounted by a finial with a United States shield of the Btars and Stripes. This is capped with a grouping of cannon balls. On the shaft is the emblem of the Grand Army of the Republic. Below this emblem on one side is the inscription, "Prected by N. B. Bluford Post, No. 26, in Memory of the Uniocated Dead, who Enlisted From the Vicinity of Plasa and Whose Names Are Inscribed on This Monument."

On the opposite side are the names of the missing soldiers. They are John P. Hale, Company F, Seventh Illinois Infantry; I. P. Clark, Company G, Sixty-sixth Illinois Infantry; Hugh Porter, Company F, Seventh Illinois Infantry; John P. Seventh Illinois Infantry; John Darr, Company H. Eighty-eighth Illinois Infantry, Henry Cramp, Company G. Sixty-sixth Illinois Infantry. These eight soldiers callsted in the Fed-eral Army, and were lost ar killed during their terms of enlistment. Every effort put forth by relatives and friends proved futile in each case, and all were given up many years ago as lost.

Her family and friends despair of her recovery. Miss Boner shares in the opinion of her relatives, and, helieving that dissolution was near, a few days ago requested her family to bring her to Jersey-ville. Remonstrances did not lessen ner desire, and accordingly she was blought to Jersey-ville in a closed arrange. When she arrived she was taken to the home of John Barringer, who colled an attorney-at-law, and her will was drawn and acknowledged. She then transferred a tract of forty acres of land to her brother Will-torney-at-law, and her will was draws and acknowledged. She then transferred a tract of forty acres of land to her brother. William A. Honer, for $1.59. With part of the money she purchased a burial casket, and also a monument. The residue of the mone realized from the sale of the land was placed in the bank to await distribution according to the provisions of the will.

Miss Boner was then driven to her coiming to the provisions of the will.

Miss Boner was then driven to her coiming the home, much weakened physically, hat pleased that her wishes had been graiffed. She told her friends that she could be compented during the rest of her days, as the burden of a suitable preparation for the end had been lifted.

Miss Boner is 21 years old, and a daugh ter of Mrs. William Boner. She has three brothers—William A. of Fieldity, John and Edward of Karis.

Miss Boner is possessed of considerable property, most of which is personal.

ported Submerged.

Wichita, Kas., May 30.—A message from Lawton, O. T., to the Eagle to-night says that there is four feet of water in the town site of Walters and that the transaction of business is impossible.

Every stream in Comanche County is a raging torrent and heavy loss of life is feared. An unknown traveling man was caught in Gache Creek and he and his team and buggy were swept away. He was undoubtedly drowned.

The Woods claim at Lawton is covered by water and a current 200 feet wide was running through it. Much loss of property is indicated by Cache Creek being blockaded in places by dead animala, farm implements and household goods.
